The Great Gardens of Italy tour attracts both avid gardeners and those looking to enrich their Italian adventure through the beauty of its famed gardens. Embracing the art of "slow travel," our tours avoid the rush, featuring leisurely starts, stays of at least three nights in each location, and ample free time tailored to your interests.

This tour is not just about gardens; it's a deep dive into Italian culture and history. Whether exploring the urban delights of Florence, Verona, or Rome, we provide expert local guides to enhance your experience of Italy's storied landscapes.

"Thank you, our Italian hosts and guides, for a wonderful, bespoke and well-organized tour. Our agenda was a mix of historical solemnity, floral whimsy, hydraulic innovation, and artistic beauty. We had great fun discovering the variety of species collected and showcased through the northern countryside and were humbled by the gracious hospitality of the private estate tours. It's a fabulous tour for all the senses, with good walking shoes"
Pauline and Suzette 2023

On this tour, we stay in four locations: four nights in Rome, four in Florence, three in Verona, and three in Bellagio by the picturesque Lake Como. Our selected hotels are chosen for their central locations and comfort. The tour includes five lunches and five dinners, allowing you to savour authentic Italian food and wine in good company.

While there are no age restrictions for our participants, a moderate level of physical fitness is required. The expansive nature of the gardens we visit means you should be comfortable walking (at a decent pace) for up to three hours at a time.

DAY 6 - GARDENS OF FLORENCE

Our exploration today focuses on two of Florence's most celebrated gardens. We begin at the magnificent Boboli Gardens, directly behind the Palazzo Pitti. The gardens are a prime example of "green architecture" and are decorated with caves, ornate fountains, and wide avenues that lead to sumptuous statues and hidden nooks.

Enjoy a break for lunch before continuing to the Giardino di Bardini. Though less frequented than the Boboli, it offers a tranquil retreat with spectacular views of the city. This garden showcases a variety of styles including an Italianate garden famed for its Baroque staircase, an English woodland, and agricultural terraces. As you ascend the garden's paths, lined with wisteria and hydrangeas, the view expands to a panorama of Florence's historic skyline, crowned by the Duomo.

DAY 7 - GARDENS OF FLORENCE

Today we visit the private Torrigiani Garden, a hidden gem that is one of the largest private gardens within a European city. Here, amidst ancient trees and elaborate sculptures, you can easily forget you are in a crowded city and lose yourself in the quiet beauty.
